

Prime Theatre

Winchester's newest professional theatre company

presents

Old World

by Aleksei Arbuzov

directed by Andy Burden

She dances in the moonlight, sings at dawn and recites poetry on demand; she is clearly no ordinary patient in the sanatorium

He is her doctor; a prickly, reserved man, exasperated yet intrigued by her sparkle and charm

They each hide their secret histories from each other, and themselves. As romance blossoms, their moving stories are gradually revealed

Old World is a delightfully observed and touching story which reminds us that it's never too late to find someone to grow old with

It is a story of hope and compassion which will appeal to audiences of all ages and tastes
