

Parking Provision

Applications may be required to provide details of existing and proposed parking provision. These details could also be shown on a site layout plan.