Paddock Drive is a beautifully furnished self-catering studio apartment offering perfect alternative to impersonal hotel accommodation. The apartments sits behind the main house Barclays, Littleton. Positioned with another self-contained apartment above; which you are able to book together should you have a larger group. There is public transport but a car is advisable. A ten minute drive into the historic town of Winchester and all its amenities and the railway - only an hour from London.

The space

Winchester is a lovely city to visit at any time of year, in Summer you can sit by the river that snakes through the medieval city, or enjoy the famous Hat Fair that brings the City alive in July. In Winter the town has the buzz of the elaborate Christmas markets and festive atmosphere. Located only 55 minutes from central London Winchester is an ideal place to stay away from the hectic city life whilst still enjoying the modern dining, luxurious boutiques and rural delights that bigger cities offer.

Situated in a peaceful location benefiting from being located far enough away from the centre for a perfect night's sleep and yet within a short car ride into the city. Paddock Drive has been sensitively renovated to cater for your every need with modern touches and attention to detail. Discreetly set back from the road behind Barclays the ground floor studio apartment offers allocated parking for one vehicle. The studio apartment offers a king size bed, matching bedside tables with lamps, wardrobe, a mirror with hairdryer, a large sofa, coffee table and even a large flat screen TV. The kitchen has built in microwave, hob top and fridge and is fully equipped for all your self catering needs. Alternatively you can treat yourself to a meal at one of Winchester's many renowned eateries.

This property has indulgent touches that make it perfect for a city break but it is equally suited to those who are looking to reside in Winchester on a temporary basis whether for work or study. You can use Paddock Drive as a base to explore Hampshire and the West or it is equally suited to extended stays with parking, easy transport links to the station and London complete with space of your own to escape at the end of a long day, all with modern stylish touches which make this apartment a unique find in this vibrant city centre.

Nice place to stay. Very much as advertised. Convenient for City or Park and Ride. Bathroom needed basic items such as mirror, hand towels and bath mat. Otherwise well equipped, clean and modern. Good pub nearby. Would not hesitate to stay again.

Issues with finding the location due to addresses being incorrect. However, the apartment itself is well presented and a nice stay.
