YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

This land was sold for agricultural use I believe. If you buy land for agricultural use (which you purchase at a much cheaper rate than land with building permission attached to it) then it should be used as such. If this gentleman is allowed to buy agricultural land and then build on it as he chooses, or develop a holiday home business it makes a mockery of us all who follow the rules. I cannot believe how many appeals this man is allowed. He's been served notices regarding other matters with this land but still continues to do exactly as he fancies and appears to have no regard/respect for the community he is attempting to move into
