

CHARITIES

The Mayor of Winchester has chosen three main charities for her year in office.

Rowans Hospice, Naomi House & Jacksplace and SSAFA.

Each charity provides valuable support that is needed across our local community.

Rowans Hospice

The Rowans Hospice is a local charity providing palliative and end of life care to the highest quality for those living with a life-limiting illness. The focus is on respect, care and dignity as a way to help patients live each day to the full. In order to provide the best possible service for patients and those who are important to them, Rowans Hospice Charity depends on the support from donors and from a dedicated and loyal team of volunteers.

Naomi House & Jacksplace

Naomi House & Jacksplace are hospices that support families and offer full palliative care service that includes respite emergency and end of life care for life-limited and life threatened children and young adults from birth into their later years.

SSAFA

SSAFA provides lifelong support to those who are serving or have served in the British Army, Royal Navy, Royal Marines or the Royal Air Force, and are dedicated to helping veterans and their families in the local community.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Office of Mayor of Winchester is the second oldest mayoralty in England, dating back to the period when the City was the national capital.

By tradition, the Mayor of Winchester stands second only to the Lord Mayor of London in precedence of civic heads.

A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

Dear Residents of Winchester District.

It is an enormous honour and privilege for me to be elected the 824th Mayor of Winchester and I look forward to coming round and meeting as many of you and your organisations as possible.

Every Mayor supports local charities and my choice are two local cancer and end of life hospices which do such sterling work to support terminally ill patients and their families.

My third charity is the Hampshire Branch of SSAFA. SSAFA provide lifelong support to those who are serving or have served in the Armed Forces and is dedicated to helping veterans and their families in the local community.

Please come along and support my fun charity events. Many of which are listed overleaf. There is something for everybody ranging from interesting local talks, Summer Soirees, wine tasting and dancing.

I very much look forward to meeting you during the year.

Very Best Wishes.

Cllr Angela Clear
Mayor of Winchester
